

CERTIFICATE OF APPRECIATION

“Achieving the perfect amalgamation of technical expertise, leadership and management skills to produce global citizens and pioneers on the path of Entrepreneurship.”

The Entrepreneurship Development Cell, Vishwakarma Institute of Information Technology appreciates the valuable contribution of

for the academic year 2019-2020.

Rohan is a top-notch definition of serene and a passionate person. After becoming the Joint Technical Head at Vishwapreneur'20 he proved how much techie enthusiast he is and it showcased his affection towards it. He always makes sure that his juniors are comfortable and motivates them to give their best for the cell. You can always look up to him. He is very focused and always contributes in every activity.

It was always helpful to have his input for the in and out of the technical domain. Your efficient improvement in overall personality ran smoothly for the cell.

The faculty and members of the Cell thank him for his contributions and wish him the very best in all his future endeavours.
